Commencement Speaker Terry Saban

Terry Saban, wife of University of Alabama Head Football Coach, Nick Saban, plays a vital role in many community outreach programs, serving as the President of both "Nick's Kids" and "Operation Santa." All money raised by the Sabans from speaking engagements and special events are donated to "Nick's Kids." Since arriving in Tuscaloosa in 2007, more than one million dollars has been distributed to area charities and organizations through "Nick's Kids." The former Terry Constable grew up in Fairmont, West Virginia, only a few miles from Coach Saban's hometown of Monongah, West Virginia. The Sabans started dating in high school and then attended Kent State University together. The Sabans were married on December 18, 1971, and are the proud parents of two children, Nicholas and Kristen. Terry received her master's degree in education from Kent State and taught in high school for 12 years. She is also a licensed realtor.

The Shelton State Community College Mace

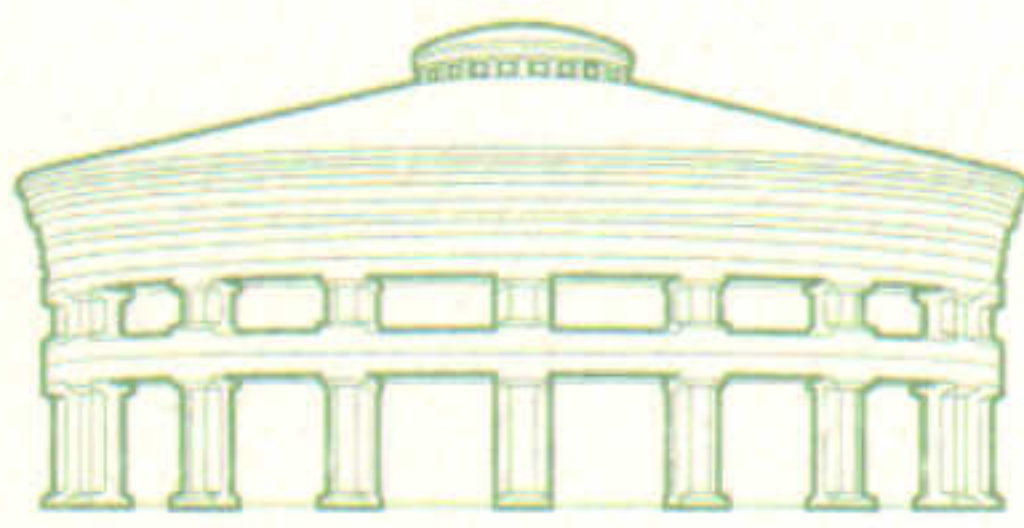

This symbol of academic excellence, career technical achievement, and community service was completely designed and constructed in 2003 by Sam House, Ron Estes, and Jamie Lindsey, students in computerized numerical control. The College will be forever grateful to these students and their instructors, Jason Moore and Ronnie Guy, for their insight, skill, and dedication to Shelton State. During commencement exercises, the bearer of the mace and the grand marshal for the procession is the faculty member named as the recipient of the Dr. and Mrs. John Todd Award for Exceptional Achievement in Teaching.

Academic Ceremonies and Regalia

The pageantry and color of academic ceremonies date back to the Middle Ages; the long-standing tradition of formal procession, music, and custom honors the dignity of the occasion. However, current practices for American colleges and universities were fixed by convention beginning in the late 19th Century and subsequently revised three times, most recently in 1986. Typically, three types of gowns are worn corresponding to the degree held by the recipients. Baccalaureate and master's gowns are distinguished by the sleeves and hood size; doctoral gowns are velvet trimmed. Caps are traditionally black, and a gold tassel on the doctoral cap replaces the black tassel on the baccalaureate and master's caps. Hoods bear the colors of the institution granting the degree and are trimmed with colors associated with the wearer's academic discipline. Colors you may see worn by faculty in today's commencement exercises and the academic discipline are as follows:

Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business	Drab
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts, including Architecture	Brown
Journalism	Crimson
Library Science	Lemon
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Physical Education	Sage Green
Public Administration, including Foreign Service	Peacock Blue
Public Health	Salmon Pink
Science	Golden Yellow
Social Work	Citron
Theology	Scarlet

You are requested to refrain from applause and congratulations for individual graduates until all graduates have been acknowledged. Such expressions detract from the recognition due the next graduate in line. Your cooperation is appreciated.
